

Smart Start Rowan, a local nonprofit, seeks a full-time Outreach & Development Specialist, whose primary responsibilities include working to increase the public's awareness of services offered by Smart Start Rowan through a variety of outreach and relationship building activities and avenues. Additionally, this position would work to increase revenue and raise funds for the agency.

Experience and proficiency with community relations, outreach, and fundraising is required. BA/BS degree in Public Relations, Early Childhood Education, Business, or related field OR an equivalent combination of education and experience. Must be a team player, self-motivated, detail orientated, w/excellent communication, organization, & interpersonal skills. A clean driving record and use of your personal vehicle is required. Send cover letter, salary requirements, and resume to Amy Brown, 1329 Jake Alexander Blvd. S., Salisbury, NC 28146. Position open until filled.

An Equal Opportunity Employer